

FROM PRODUCTION TO CONSUMPTION: TRANSATLANTIC FOOD HISTORY SINCE THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

Lauren Goldstein

Ph.D. Candidate, McMaster University

*Into the heart of "culinary darkness":
Perceptions of "Bad" English
Cookery, 1830-1930*

Hayley Goodchild

Ph.D. Candidate, McMaster University

'This is the cheese that Jack built' and Other Dairy Tales in Nineteenth-Century Ontario

Dr. Ian Mosby

Department of History
University of Guelph

Hunger, Human Experimentation and Nutritional Colonialism in Aboriginal Communities and Residential Schools, 1942-1952

Thurs. 27 March 2014
2:00 – 5:30 p.m.
CNH/607B

Andrew Kloiber

Ph.D. Candidate, McMaster University

*Brewing Socialism:
Coffee and Society in the German Democratic Republic,
1949-1975*

Jennifer Bonnell

Wilson Fellow, McMaster University

*Negotiating Protections for Honey Bee
Health in Victorian Ontario*